Surname: Kimbel

Over years of researching this family, I have noted that there are many Kimball families which appear to originate in New England. There are also Kimbel families which appear to be German in origin. However, the Kimbel family I am interested in appears to have roots in Sussex County, New Jersey, and be of English/Scotch-Irish origin.

Daniel and Elizabeth (Cole) Kimbel were married in Seneca County, Ohio, in 1844, and are enumerated in the 1850 census in Seneca County, Reed Twp. It appears that Daniel (about 1822-1904) moved his family to DeKalb not long after this census, and in fact, owned land in Seneca County, Fairfield Twp., before 1850. Daniel served in the 13th Indiana Infantry from DeKalb. In 1866, the family moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana, and later to St. Joseph and Manistee counties in Michigan.

Of the seven children of Daniel and Elizabeth, five of them married into the McClish family, also of interest to a number of DeKalb County researchers. However, my ancestor, John W. Kimbel, is one of the two who did not marry McClish. Nevertheless, it appears John and Daniel maintained ties to DeKalb County throughout their lives, likely due to the presence of two of John's married sisters (Margaret Matilda and Catherine) who lived in the Ashley/Hudson and Hamilton areas, and well as ties that at least one of John's wives had to the area.

One piece of evidence connecting generations of this Kimbel family is naming patterns. The name of Daniel's father (Francis Squire) appears in several generations, as well as the name Daniel.

Jay-Wells counties

There are a number of Kimbels south of DeKalb, in the area of Wells and Jay counties, Indiana. It is unclear whether they are related to the Kimbels of DeKalb. I have gathered some information on this family in order to explore a possible connection between "my" Kimbels and a group of Kimbels in Wexford County, Michigan (next door to Manistee County where the Kimbel family lived from about 1883-1900). However, the Wexford Kimbels appear to originate from Wells County, Indiana, and to be descendants of a Raymond Kimbel, who apparently moved to Wexford to work on a WPA project in the 1930s (see Social Security application for Raymond).

Nevertheless, there could be a connection between these families further back in Ohio. Little is known of the siblings of Daniel Kimbel. He had a sister Margaret, who married George Mundy and lived in Steuben County for many years (their daughter Martha married into the Snowberger family), and a brother, Stephen, who lived with his niece in later years. There may also have been a brother George. However, it would seem likely that there may have been more than four children in the family of Daniel's parents (Francis Squire and Catherine (Hursh) Kimbel). It will take more research to determine any possible connections between these groups.

Ancestor Profile: John W. Kimbel

My ancestor, John Wesley Kimbel, was born 8 May 1847 in Reed Twp., Seneca County, Ohio. He was the son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Cole) Kimbel.

The Kimbel family is found in the 1850 census in Reed Twp., Seneca County, Ohio, although Daniel owned land in Fairfield Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana. A deed record exists for the transfer of 80 acres of land from Francis S. Kimbel to Daniel Kimbel, dated 10 November 1848.

It appears the Kimbels moved to Indiana sometime after the 1850 census was enumerated. The 1860 census records for this family are found in DeKalb County, Fairfield Twp., page 9.

| Family Group, Children of Daniel and Elizabeth Kimbel | | |

| Child | Birth Date | Notes |
| Margaret Matilda Kimbel | 24 December 1845 | Married Alexander McClish and later Josiah Boyer |

| Catherine Hannah Kimbel | 28 April 1853 | Married Royal Artemus McClish |

| Daniel Kimbel | About 1859 | Married Mary Jane Ream |
| Charles W. Kimbel | 5 January 1860 | Married Jennie McClish |

The Kimbels stayed in Fairfield Twp. until after the Civil War. In 1866, most of the family moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana. Wherever they moved, the Kimbel family was often located close to McClish and Cole families.

John W. Kimbel's first wife was Margaret Hissong. They married on 19 December 1868 in Plymouth, Marshall County, Indiana[1]. In the 1870 census, this couple is shown living in Marshall County, Bourbon Twp. John's occupation is listed as carpenter.

By the time John's first son, George Lee, was born, John and Margaret had moved to Mendon, St. Joseph County, Michigan. Margaret died soon after her son's birth, on 25 February, 1873. No death record has been located for her, but she is buried in Mendon Township Cemetery.

The date and location of John's second marriage, to Annie G. White, has not been located. This probably occurred before the birth of their first child, a stillborn daughter, in 1878. It is likely that Annie was ill at the time the 1880 census was taken. John's parents, Daniel and Elizabeth, are found in the 1880 census in a household near John's, with their grandson, George Lee, recorded in their home. Annie died of consumption on 28 September 1880 in Leonidas, St. Joseph County, Michigan.

John married his third wife, Louisa Lamphier March, on 22 June 1881 in Three Rivers, St. Joseph County, Michigan. Not long after his marriage, John moved from St. Joseph County to Manistee County, in the northwest part of Michigan's lower peninsula. The Manistee City and County Directory (dated 1883), lists both John and his father in Manistee County. John W. Kimble [sic] is listed as a farmer in Cleon Twp. with 40 acres. Louisa died in Manistee County, 16 April 1883, although her will was probated in St. Joseph County.

Records for John and Daniel are found in Cleon and Marilla townships, in Manistee County, from 1883 to about 1900. It is possible that they decided to move north because of the lumber boom in northern Michigan at the time. John's father, Daniel, had served in the Civil War. He applied for, and received, a land patent for 40 acres in Marilla Twp. Daniel built a homestead there, but it is unclear how long he may have lived there.

Daniel's wife, Elizabeth, died in Manistee County on 6 August 1886. The records connected to this land patent refer to her death.

Despite a number of moves and the passage of time, the Kimbel family maintained ties to DeKalb County for many years, likely due to the presence of relatives there. John and his fourth wife, Emma Brand, were married in DeKalb County on March 25, 1887, and several of their children appear to have been born in the area. John's sister, Margaret Matilda, appears to have lived her entire adult life in the Ashley-Hudson area.

By 1900, John and Daniel had returned to Leonidas Twp., St. Joseph County, Michigan, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. Daniel died 14 April 1904. John died 29 January 1919. Emma Brand Kimbel outlived her husband. She died 12 December 1952, in Centreville, St. Joseph County, Michigan.

The funeral service of John Kimbel, aged 71, was held at the M.E. Church in this village [Leonidas] Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Tench. Mr. Kimbel was a carpenter by trade, a kind neighbor and highly respected, was well known, having lived in this township for several years. A wife, nine children, and several grandchildren survive, and mourn for a faithful husband and loving father has been taken from them. God knoweth best and he doeth all things well.

[NOTE.—Affiants should state how they gain a knowledge of the facts to which they testify.]

I was a member of co E 137th Ind vol inft and was well acquainted with Daniel Kimble. Slept with him frequently and conversed with him nearly every day. I was with him when one day lay in front of Richmond in 1864 and Remember at the time the Reg left to go to Ft Fisher the first time in December 1864. When he came back to our old quarters it was raining a cold rain and the Reg marched from Deep Bottom a distance of about four miles in the rain and Daniel Kimble took a hard cold that terminated in what appeared to be a settled cough. I was with him when we went to take Fort Fisher the second time and took it Daniel Kimble was standing guard at the post of the Commissary the next morning after the Fort was ordered which was Sunday I think this was on the morning of the 16th day of January 1865 and we lay in the Fort until about the 15th day of February 1865 and I was with him during all that all that time and observed his cough it appeared to be dry and harsh. I was also with him on our march to Goldsborough and saw and conversed with him nearly every day until he was taken to the hospital His cough had continued to grow worse until he left the Reg and had laid in his bunk for several days unable to perform duty and at the time he was removed to the hospital was emaciated and weak and in my judgment should have been removed several days before he was but matters were at that time in a very unsettled condition and it was not an easy task to get men into the hospital

I further declare that I have no interest in said case and that I not concerned in its prosecution.

Surname: Heckathorn

Enclosed please find certain materials related to individuals with this surname. I have not done extensive research on this family, however I believe useful clues for other Heckathorn researchers may be found in this material.

My ancestor is a Catherine Heckathorn, who married a Benjamin Rodgers in Starke County, Ohio and moved first to St. Joseph County, Indiana, then to Berrien County, Michigan.

The marriage record listings (transcribed or noted from LDS microfilm copies of the records), which include Catherine, Adam and William Heckathorn, also a Daniel Heckathorn, may be of particular interest. (This William (with wife Barbara) would appear to be the father of the William Heckathorn that married Sarah McClish.) The time periods are such that Daniel may be the father of Catherine and Adam; it is a little tight to theorize that he is the father of William unless his 1823 marriage is not his first marriage, since most people did not marry at a very young age in the 1800s. It could be that Daniel is the father of all three, but there is more than one wife involved, or that he is an uncle, cousin or another less close relative. It will take further research to determine the actual relationships.

Researchers interested in the DeKalb County Heckathorns might also wish to look at the Heckathorns of Berrien County, Michigan, as possible collateral lines, in order to forward their research.

In the Kimbel surname material, it is interesting to note that some of Daniel Kimbel's Civil War pension file documents were signed by William Heckathorn. It appears these men were relatively close in age, and were neighbors although living in different townships. I know of no closer relationship between the Kimbel and Heckathorn families until the 1950s, when my parents married, and this dependent on whether William of DeKalb is ultimately related to Catherine of Berrien County, Michigan.

Vol. XVIIII | THREE OAKS, MICHIGAN, JULY 21, 1910 | No. 33

The Every Monday Club Entertains.

The members of The Every Monday Club, who in times past have enjoyed many social occasions, sustained their reputation for pleasant and unique social affairs without repetition, when, on Thursday afternoon, July 14, they served a four course dinner on the lawn in front of the residence of Hon. and Mrs J. L. McKie.

The guests of honor were Mrs M. J Norton, who will soon be located in Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Ada Sherwood, who recently returned to Three Oaks from Oberlin, Ohio, for a few weeks' stay.

The dinner was all that could be expected from the famous cooks who planned and prepared it, and was prettily served by the Misses Helen Beeson, Louise Warren and Louise Smith.

Reminiscences of former good times, and remembrances of absent members, who now far outnumber the local membership, were happily indulged in The hostess of the occasion, Mrs. J. L. McKie, is now the only resident charter member.

Sudden Death of Fred Phillippi.

On Friday morning Fred Phillippi went to work with his two sons building wire fence for Mr. Hoven, at which trade he has worked for twenty years About 11 o'clock as he was stretching the wire it broke and the machine struck him on the head, fracturing the skull, causing concussion of the brain Drs. Eastman and Helkie were called and they took him to Mr. Schopbeck's house where everything was done for him, but at 8:30 p. m. he passed away. He was removed to his home and the funeral was held Sunday, July 17, at the German Church near his home conducted by Rev. Mr. English.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, three sons, an aged father and mother, two brothers and one sister, he being the oldest of the family. His age was 40 years 11 months.

Interment was in the Drew cemetery.

The Passing of a Pioneer.

Christopher Heckathorn was born in Stark county, Ohio, in 1831 and died at his home in Galien township July 15th, at the ripe old age of 78 years 9 months and 20 days The deceased emigrated from Ohio, to Mishawaka Ind., with his parents when a boy, where he made his home for several years. In 1861 he came to Michigan and located on the farm now owned by Alonzo Goodenough, but later purchased the farm on which he died, the latter being a wilderness, and by his own hands has produced a beautiful home.

It can be truthfully said that honor and honesty were Mr. Heckathorn's foremost thoughts. He was a charter member of the U. B. church at Olive Branch and has always contributed liberally towards its support.

To mourn his loss he leaves an aged wife, three sons and two daughters, twenty-three grand children and three great grand children, besides his many friends In their great bereavement this community extends its sympathy. The children are Mrs S. B. Hampton, Henry, Frank and Joseph Heckathorn, all of Galien, and Mrs. John James of Bridgman, two sisters of the deceased are Mrs. Albert Althar of Mishawaka, Ind., and and Mrs. Alonzo Goodenough of Galien,

18,000 Will Not Participate In Primary Fund

There are 18,389 school children who will not participate in the distribution of primary school money this July, the districts in which they attend school being supplied with a sufficient amount of money to provide for the next two years In all 183 districts are affected by the law passed in 1903 which ended the piling up of primary funds in districts where the annual apportionment was simply stored away with funds previously acquired by reason of the fact that the district did not use the entire amount apportioned each year.

It is estimated that the apportionment this year will amount to approximately $3.35 per capita, among the schools which have no balance on hand. Under the law the money cannot be used for certain school purposes and the limitation has resulted in the past in piling up money in many districts. Under the records in the office of the superintendent of public instruction there are 45 counties in which are located non-participating districts. For instance Bay county has 21 districts with a total of 3,086 children which will not participate.
